Have had long talk with E. (Eagan). Is very grateful for assurances, and I am sure he is perfectly satisfied to date. THINKS VALUA-BLE SERVICE CAN BE RENDERED LATER.—Dispatch from Armour's lobbyist, Brine, to his employers.

Cannot you find out just what M.'s (Miles's) tactics will be in defence? I am anxious to know. I SUPPOSE MATTER WILL NOT BE NEGLECTED IN E.'S [EAGAN'S] DEPART-MENT TO OUR DETRIMENT DURING THE TIME HE IS OUT. I expect you to rentain in Washington as long as is necessary.—Dispatch from Armour's Chicago manager, C. M. Favorite, to Lobbyist Brine at Washington, published in the Journal.

Freeze 30,000 carcass beef quarters to weigh 175 to 200 also 2,800 hiridquarters 8.40 for carcasses 101/2 hinds Colorados all right NOT NECESSARY BE PARTICU-LAR ABOUT QUALITY.—Dispatch from Armour's Washington agent, Galbraith, to his employers. Procured and published by the JOURNAL.

I had an hour's talk with Colonel Denby this morning. DALY'S TESTIMONY ANNOYS HIM GREATLY from a legal standpoint. He has been writing the Commission's report, and UP TO NOW SAYS HE HAD PLAIN SAILING. Wants to ascertain soon as possible Daly's character standing at home at Pittsburg. Handicapped by Atwater POSITIVELY REFUSING ALL REMUNERATION. but NOW THAT DEPT. INTERESTED HE IS MORE LIMBER.—Dispatches from Armour's lobbyist, Byrne, to his employers, Martial Law for Beef Poisoners.

The army beef scandal becomes more horrible day by day. At the respect and loyalty of the general public.

A season of brilliant sport is before us, such last It has reached a climax. General Miles declares that our soldiers sport as will in time give the American turf t file front were fed on beef "loaded and saturated with chem- foremost men in England proud to be accals various acids which made them sick, FILLED THE tively identified with racing. If there be no MEN'S SYSTEMS WITH POISON, unfitting them for fighting or hitch or halt, the day will not be long in people to attempt by law to prescribe what people ampaign work." He asserts that he now has reports to this effect Derby winner will be appreciated as genurom-thirty regimental commanders, and that they are all of the same the Atlantic, tharacter—"all showing that the beef had been embalmed or was But to effect this there must be no looking neither in favor of nor against the sale of liquor to I don't sympathize with either who stops in his therwise made UNFIT FOR MEN OR DOGS." All this is told in selfishly devoted time and money to the re- lent.

Lan interview in the Herald.

As to a workingman's club, it must be in the 1 an interview in the Herald.

That neither the beef packers nor the officials who had to pass ready to welcome the active support of other that suits him. As a matter of fact, to-day in this n their product minded this state of things, is evident from the dis. influential men, thus avoiding all semblance city club facilities for workingmen are largely afof monopoly. The wise administration of disand to them as to drink. It is readly the only chiefly by the conditions in which the poor are are mighty poor clubs.

As 1 understand Bishop Potter's idea, it is piace where he can meet his friends and where so that reasonable social relaxation can be obtained blished in the Journal:

tails are, of course, essentials, but there is no that a club is not an asylum to which a man is he can behave without restraint, and thoroughly in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means that a club is not an asylum to which he goes of enjoy relaxation can be obtained in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place to which he goes of enjoy relaxation can be obtained in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means of intemperance will be removed. I am strongly the removed. I am strongly the strongly are the profits of it as many prominent and wealthy such a place as he cares to go to. Also that this influences may social interaction can be obtained in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place to which he goes of enjoy relaxation from his work. I by no means of interaction can be obtained in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place to which he goes of enjoy relaxation can be obtained in respectable places and without any attempt to object more desirable, more necessary indeed, to be committed, but a place as he can be dear the can was not necessary to be particular about anything but the profits of tracting to it as many prominent and wealthy social instinct is something that must be provide trous. No other place, however, exists where no e men who were coining soldiers' lives into money.

For all this there has been no talk thus far but of investigation. he question has been whether the President's commission could be usted to investigate thoroughly, or whether Congress ought to take old of the work itself.

But in the face of all the unimaginable infamies that are daily com. most interesting themes of public discussion being ignored. r to light, such discussions have become trivial. Investigation, even There is the Common sense should some of his crit- exists, and would be of ultimate benefit to his sale of liquor at workingment's class.

C. L. SCHURZ.

MARGARET FINN. the most relentless sort, would utterly fail to meet the demands of our army charged with poisoning our soldiers.

In half the States in the Union where elecpresent situation.

IT IS NOT CURIOSITY THAT MUST BE SATISFIED each side is openly accused of bribing the ad-OW, BUT JUSTICE.

It is not an investigating commission we want, but a criminal spent $40,000 in politics.

And why should not that court be a court-martial? The country Yet, do you hear a roar of anger rise from on a gentle and aromatic basis. Carnation pink Mile. Fift herself, in spite of her kiss song, her still at war. The peace treaty has not been ratified. We may have the throats of an outraged public? Nay, gen- and chloride of lime have their uses, as well as exceedingly candid emboupoint, her towsled red their abuses. In the place of "The Turtle" we got the reader, the public does not roar. The a "comedy" in three acts, adapted by Leo Dies a "comedy" in three acts, adapted by Leo Dies a laugh. It is a sort of farce gone wrong—a farce the public has w and more dangerous enemies to face at any moment, and our de- public does not feel outraged. The public has a "comedy" in three acts, adapted by Leo Diestrickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh. It is a sort of face gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh that the make of trickstein from the French of Dumanoiz and Carre, a laugh that the make of trickstein from the farce gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the farce gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the farce gone wrong—a farce strong that the make of trickstein from the farce gone wrong—a farce gone asive force has been crippled. The men who have done this thing are In England they have a woful way of takblic enemies, and they can be dealt with most appropriately by the ing those things seriously—just like Britishfort to be funny with a thoroughly clothed east, fallen by the wayside. rn processes of military law.

What they deserve is to be stood up against a wall and shot. That Gramplan Hills. First they remove him. the penalty prescribed for the soldier who goes home without per- guilty he goes to jail even if he is hand in ssion, and what is the deserter's offence compared with the crime of glove with the Prince of Wales. And if they men who deliberately wreck a whole army for the base greed of rid of him anyway, on the assumption that ies. They find it convenient to carry a full line of those articles in an English Armour? No. the British public ir business. But they would find a collision with a court-martial a has such a disagreeably brutal way of looksensation. The country would take a grim satisfaction in the in it.

ANXIETY PERHAPS EXCESSIVE. resolution asking the telling in the February "Century" how a real seem to undervalue honesty. He must have flung her slashed robe to one side, and revealed as a bone of contention Secretary of War for hero acts in such circumstances: information in regard At the first shot the sentry, as if he had been spldiers in the Phil- ed and locked it, and ran away. I concluded that Clay, and Webster, and compare them with the splinters from the door would be preferable. Hanna, and Quay, and Alger, you really have not calculated to appeal to the Young Person, was mutton domesticity.

The splinters from the door would be preferable Hanna, and Quay, and Alger, you really have not calculated to appeal to the Young Person, was mutton domesticity. uspesse of the Senator from Illinois is to only a few moments to determine the best measweil the neglect of the Commissary Dement in the Santiago campaign his instrument in t at a recurrence of the suffering that ures to take. I pulled the table and the washstand. IN THE COURSE of an otherwise judicious. The idea of "Alle Fig." is supposed to ork any change in the sentiment of the fiquely by entering projectiles, and from the whole . It is natural to expect that climatic cell or wall beneath being blown out by a thirteen-ions will temporarily affect the health inch projectile and falling and crumbling down the merican soldiers in the Philippines, precipice. the most favorable conditions in Porto Hobson had just displayed the most reck-receipt of the following gift to this library: "Seour troops were stricken with malarial less disregard for his life, when there was an erel Proceedings of the Peace Commission...

It seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance with malarial less disregard for his life, when there was an erel Proceedings of the Peace Commission...

It seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance with malarial less disregard for his life, when there was an erel Proceedings of the Peace Commission...

It seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance with annoyance of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequal parts, mix thoroughly and serve hot, and liv, one of the members replied, with annoyance of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems to me that we are getting an unconsequence of the peace Commission...

The seems say much more we will follow your beat, and then the they would not have a similar caution for his safety. In other words, while that they would not have a similar caution for his safety. In other words, while and Advertiser," and beg you to accept appression to the Philippines.

That seems to be the principal of the New York Journal "Tristan," "Gotterdammering" and "Walkuere" ance giver at the Metropolitan last night.

Say much more we will follow your beat, and then and Advertiser, and beg you to accept appression to say that this week without anything being said about a "eyele" together spirited and exceptional a performance has ever happened to Herr Schalk, but I have as the last one at the matinee, but for all that heard rumors.

Town R. Heart For New York Journal "Tristan," "Gotterdammering" and "Walkuere" ance giver at the Metropolitan last night.

Say much more we will follow your beat, and then and them and them were will you be?" I would not say that this week without anything being said about a "eyele" together spirited and exceptional a performance has ever happened to Herr Schalk, but I have as the last one at the matinee, but for all that heard rumors.

Town R. Heart For New York Journal "Tristan," "Gotterdammering" and "Walkuere" ance giver at the Metropolitan last night.

Say much more we will follow your beat, and them and them on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, as all them as not, on the whole, to my thinking, American soldier is not an effeminate mon sense. That seems to be the principal To W. R. Hearst, Esq., New York Journal, N. Y. Of course we all like "Tristan," or think we good enough to merit the appellation grand. I Well, all in all, the performance was an ad-to be nursed and coddled. «He wants difference between the real and the stage d clean and wholesome. He draws the hero. 'embaimed' beef. But he doesn't exnate inquiry every time a change of im to the hospital for a brief spell.

SEASON

REAL

locked up in a cell in ND STAGE HEROES. he would stand in the middle of the have had chances to gratify their sporting New York, Feb. 1, 1893. eing the audience, with folded arms, instincts at Washington, Aqueduct and Mor-lly bidding defiance to death, or else ris Park, men as possible.

tion of affairs by the Jockey Club and those working under its rules is such as to retain

IT IS TO LAUGH.

and see how jovially we contemplate them. tions for United States Senators are going on nerents of the other. A leader of a political

You can find plenty of other tales of corruption and barefaced criminality.

ers. When a public official is accused of corruption you hear a howl from Dover to the Then they investigate him. And if he is can't find him guilty they do their best to get If he were scrupulously honest he would The magnates of the Beef Trust have no fear of civil courts and never have been accused. Do you ever hear of an English Hanna, or an English Quay, or ing at dishonesty that there isn't a bit of fun

Why don't we do likewise? well, an Englishman once said that the Americans, as a Senator Mason's shatters the ideals of the matinee girls by rule, are honest individually, but as a people gose coghlan. comite de Pulssac, cast haps a refreshing circumresolution asking the telling in the February "Continue" by seem to undervalue honesty. He must have made a mistake. It must be our sense of her nether extremities in cozy black tights. But seemed a trifle tame. Evi humor. After all, when you take men like as a callous damsel near me remarked, "We ought deatly the Anna Held skirt to the health of our previously instructed, quickly closed the door, boit. Washington, and Lincoln, and Adams, and to feel thankful that the management allowed her is looked upon as particularly dealths, and calculate the door, boit.

Welcomed at Annapolis.

U. S. Naval Academy Library, Annapolis, Md., Jan. 28, 1899. Sir: I have the pleasure of acknowledging the that "the one bright spot in the Administration of weary lengths of dull retteration. I am aware, of and impressive than before, and the love due, of "Tristan" at the matinee declared she would or water or a touch of nostalgia of the weights for the Grover Cleveland was his enforcing the laws course, that in saying this I write myself down while beautifully sung. In a measure less convince never see another performance of the opera less im to the hospital for a brief spell.

THE RACING

The weights for the Grover Cleveland was his enforcing the laws course, that in saying this I write myself down while beautifully sung. In a measure less convince never see another performance of the opera less important the convergence of the opera less than usual. I am bound to say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the audience the extraordinary impression then created should be say the extraordinary impression the created should be say the extraordinary impression the created should be say the extraordinary in the has come to be re- scientious about enforcing the laws, why did he Wagner cranks and faddists, but it is just as well did not seem to agree with me, as the applause be impaired or destroyed, and stopped quietly atgarded as the earliest not enforce the auti-trust laws on the Federal to speak the truth some times. And with so much was as constant and insistent as ever. of 1899. garded as the earliest glimpse of the dawn lawless combinations during his entire term of of the "Meistersinger," which could certainly be formunce and performers that has not been said a fortress, what of a new racing season. The handicaps are office? While on this subject, why doesn't McKing admirably cast if all I hear about the excellence of the first of the two whore level of the mailtened and extinct improvement.

The Journal's Invitation to Eagan.

The Journal's Invitation to Eagan.

It bidding defiance to death, or else ris Park.

It bidding defiance to death, or else ris Park.

It spring with gay insouciance to the and gleefully watch the thirteen crucial one in turf affairs. Matters looked less they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls as they hurtled shrieking in his little short of hopeless up to the time when colls and that of "The Journal's Invitation to Eagan.

It is disconda" and that of "The him. At any rate, his lower tones certainly lacked up the solution of "Mas dried up the solution of "Mas dried up the welcome after this interminable course of Wag.

As before, Mr. Pringle was a capable Melot, and the welcome after this interminable course of Wag.

As before, Mr. Pringle was a capable Melot, and the welcome after this interminable course of Wag.

As before, Mr. Pringle was a capable Melot, and the welcome after the interminable of "My sorrow," she mouned, "My sorrow," she mouned, "My sorrow," she mouned, "My sorrow Mr. Grau.

Meux, M. Bars and Herr Meffert, in the milnor of the time when in May, 1855, the existing aw regulating racods, and threatened to oring sult against that pubwelcome them.

In in this State was passed. The associaling in this

THE POOR MAN'S CLUB PROBLEM.

A CLUB IS NOT AN ASYLUM.

deal more sold and drunk than is good not interfere with them, and I don't see why they for people, but I consider it an impertinence either for the public or any set of oming when the glory of "leading home" a shall eat, drink or wear, or how they shall spend ize saloon clubs, or if his critics should try to organite and endeavor to improve it. Sociability, even oming when the glory of "leading home" a shall eat, drink or wear, or how they shall spend its saloon frequenters into tectotal clubs, neither time so long as they don't interfere with oth inely in this country as on the other side of they ought to be punished, not dictated to as to As to both Bishop the Atlantic. what they shall eat and drink. I am, therefore, back on the part of the men who have un- workingmen, or to anybody else, being adults, in charitable work to stone the other, and I am

As to a workingman's club, it must be in the this, they must be broad in their ideas, and main like anybody else's club-the sort of club

That it is now largely met by the saloons, and, Workingmen's associations are very admirable, in

S to liquor, I take it that there is a good who don't want liquor. I'm sure the Bishop would should with him published in the Journal.

Of one thing I am certain, however, that if Bishop Potter should try to form teetotalers into

As to both Bishop Potter and his critics, I cu tirely sympathize with their philanthropic inteur

SALOONS NOT ONLY FOR DRINKS.

just as much to see his friends and to talk value of such remper with them on topics of inferest to himself denial of freedom. ed for if people are to be influenced for good, can meet his friends in the same familiar way, tend toward true temperance, ERNEST H, CROSBY, We Americans therefore, that the most practical thing to do is deed, as far as they go. But I believe that when have a wonderful to recognize this fact and make the saloous bet a man frequents such associations he is under sense of humor. And ter clubs in every way in which their associations a continual restraint, which is unpleasant to him can be made more helpful. I den't understand self and to his friends. I believe that if a working. A make the proposed clubs more successful in we are such a genial that Bishop Potter fasists upon fiquor seiling or man's club were organized where a workingman folk. Take, for in iquor drinking, but what he does insist upon is would have to pay moderate dues, and where, in It might kindle into flame the appetites that only stance, some of the that social habits be directed for good, instead of addition, he could get light refreshments, such as need the spark of one drink to rouse them. I do being ignored.

That seems common sense to me. It would also saloon and the workingman's association as it now opposed to drink in any form. For that reason I cannot agree with Eishop l'otter in advocating the control of the contro

A STRICTLY PERSONAL RECORD GF INDIVIDUAL OPINIONS.

SOCIABILITY AS WELL AS LIQUOR. THE statement that the saloon is the poor man' club meets with my unqualified assent. Until something better can be found to supplant it. it would seem to be the part of wisdom to accept it and endeavor to improve it. Sociability, even sought by the greater number of its frequenters Certain saloons inGerman towns where working men take their wives and families for an evening quiet entertalnment occur to me also as indicatin one direction of reform. J. K. PATLDING, President Social Reform Club,

NO TEMPERANCE BY LEGISLATION.

USED to think that men could be made tempy p ate by restrictive legislation, but I have changed my mind on the subject. I doubt the value of such temperance as may be secured by the

MAY MAKE DRUNKARDS.

LTHOUGH the sale of liquor would probably

LOUISE BEAUDET IN "MLLE."

and place Messrs. Brady and Ziegfeld's playhouse husband exacts the sympathy of the audience, and modified Fagin make up was a very polite per

and called "Mile, Fifi."

being picturesquely shock- infidelity has been played al whispered pathetic upon in such a variety of words to their escorts tunes that there is very sweet Laura Jean L not calculated to appeal to the Young Person, was wilgar enough, goodness knows; but there is no the mother-in-law in the party in New York declared that he has The Manhattan Theatre last night was—ac becomes temporarily real.

spent $40,000 in politics.

Quite secure as we saw Miss Coghlan appear spent $40,000 in politics.

Quite secure as we saw Miss Coghlan appear spent $40,000 in politics. So-and-So's carnation pink." Possibly this ja this farce all seem to be norribly in carnest. Into her bodices. done to get rid of the odor of "The Turtle" The wife is plaintive and tear-compelling; the Mr. Sullivan as a Hebrew money lender with a uncertain what to make of itself-a farce that The comedy proved to be a rather laborious ef. seems to have started nicely in life and then Mile. Fift, on whose score the pother of the second original wit has been Dietrichsteined out of it. the Beaudet never falls. act was reared, was one of those extremely French Certainly very little remains. A few broad reladies who wear Anna marks call forth the guffaws of the professional and soul into everything, Held costumes at break- guffawers, but you feel that Mile. Fift is an and she is conscientiousfast and smoke eigarettes effort, and, as a matter of fact, there are only ness when they are at a loss about twenty minutes of that decollete but ami-for "business." She is the able lady. The second act is livelier than the first. play. I am sure she type that you see in the It takes place in the Vicomae's bachelor apart- couldn't have and nowhere else, but, as apartments are upon the stage, with cozy corners allowing the curtain said before, she was and Turkish upholstery. fully clad. A few ladies However, this is a regular sample of imported Miss Beauder talked a kiss who are rapidly becoming French farce, and in the carnation perfumed Man-song and made violent skilled in the neat art of hattau it extorted an occasional laugh. Marital love to Aubrey Bouch when Mile. Fift, in her little music left in it. The effort to "regain the love" fact that this marital inexpression?) of the Vi- rather than real, was per

ALAN DALE'S VIEWS OF THE COMEDY.

-a sort of child of the Ghetto with St. Patrick's Perhaps some of the ter lady, played MHe, Fifi remarkably well. Lit.

French illustrated papers wents-furnished as all ill-regulated bachelor folling upon that sofa and eault-which must have required all the arts of acting, I should say-and then she vanished.

Mr. Bouelcaulf, as an extremely un-French vi- LOUISE BEAUDET, comte, went rather explosively through his role. as though it were a paper hoop through which be was asked to burst. He is a clean-looking, well-groomed young man, but as a viconite I should not plek him out from a Parislan gathering.

Miss Grace George, as the wife in the case brought the ungarnished beauty of Eliean in "Mis. Tanqueray" to the task. She played her part with strenuous effort to pout and be babyish, and stamped her feet, as no Parisienne on earth would have done because no Parislenne would have consented to make se much noise with the bottines. case, was the most inter. AUBREY BOUCICAULT, upon which she prides herself so pardonably, do, or fear to say we do not. Personally I prefer thought that both Jean de Reszke and Mme. Leb- mirable one; with such a cast it could hardly have Two Kinds of Law Enforcement.

"TRISTAN AND ISOLDE." REGINALD DE KOVEN REVIEWS THE

The morning papers report Congressman Cannon in spite of its moments of intense absorbing all intensity at times, the duct at the close of the wish I had followed the example of as saying, when arguing in favor of the Army bill, beauty, which still hardly make amends for its first act being, as I thought, far less commanding mine who after the last memorable performance.

The appearance of the army bill, beauty, which still hardly make amends for its first act being, as I thought, far less commanding mine who after the last memorable performance.

would be do if his still far off—indeed, the first of the two whose ley enforce the anti-trust laws, recently declared of Herr Von Rooy's Hans Sachs be true? It seems to me that in so constantly ringing the changes the weights have so far been made public will constitutional by the United States Supreme to me that in so constantly ringing the changes the weights have so far been made public will court? The explanation is simple. The strikers upon casts in a few operas Mr. Grau is allowing the season to languish and grow dull.

The eminent statesman was run one of his notice and artistic impersonation, and the race was a close one of his notice and artistic impersonation, and the race was a close one of his notice. Here was to constitutional by the united states and the weights have so far been made public will court? The explanation is simple. The strikers upon casts in a few operas Mr. Grau is allowing difficult and thankless part have met with another check."

The eminent statesman was run one of his notice and artistic impersonation. The eminent statesman was run one of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions in the season of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his notice constitutions and the race was a close one of his notice. The replacement of his We need now something which might be said to approximate a novelry, to brighten things up a bit. Where is the promised—oh, so long promised—revival of "La Gioconda" and that of "The home with my recollection

REGINALD DE KOVEN.

Not to His Knowledge. The eminent statesman was running for re-elec-

"I hear, Senator," whispered his fugleman, "you